South Florida's Eric Stephenson
Joins International SPA Association Board

(DELRAY BEACH, Fla) (Jan. 2015) — Nationally-known spa consultant and massage educator Eric Stephenson is a newly-elected member of the International SPA Association (ISPA) board of directors. Based in Delray Beach, Stephenson is the Co-founder and Director of Education for imassage, Inc. and the Director of Education for Well World Group.

With nearly two decades in the massage and spa industries, joining the ISPA board is a logical step for Stephenson, "It is such an honor to be selected and work alongside such passionate leaders. Being an ambassador for ISPA out in the world is exciting. I love supporting current members, as well as spreading the word about the wealth of opportunities we foster for new members in education, networking and tools to grow their businesses."

ISPA President Lynne McNees adds, "We are thrilled to welcome our new board members into the ISPA family. Their commitment to the spa community through service as an ISPA board member will further strengthen the association."

Stephenson was elected by the ISPA membership for the ISPA board of directors following an extensive interview process. Stephenson has been a member of ISPA since 2007.
